Title

Resolution Requesting ICE stay the deportation of Ann Arbor Resident Lourdes Salazar-Bautista

Body

Whereas, Lourdes Salazar-Bautista has been a lawful, positive, contributing resident and tax payer of Ann Arbor for close to twenty years; and,

Whereas, Mrs. Salazar is the single mother of three children, all US citizens, aged 13, 15 and 20; and,

Whereas, Mrs. Salazar is facing an order of deportation on or before August 2, 2017 from the US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE); and,

Whereas, the deportation of Mrs. Salazar will leave a 13-year old boy and 15-year old girl without a parent and without a legal guardian, or force her eldest daughter, an incoming sophomore at Michigan State University, to try and take care of them; and,

Whereas, Mrs. Salazar-Bautista is the source of care and economic stability for this family and is essential for the continued development of all three of her children.

RESOLVED, that the City Council of Ann Arbor respectfully seeks that Ms. Rebecca Adducci, Field Director of the Detroit Office of Immigration and Customs, or any other capable official, issue a stay of deportation for Mrs. Salazar to allow her to continue to financially and emotionally support her family in Ann Arbor.
