To whom it may concern:

My name is Ms. Miriam Lindsey, owner and operator of Nawnie's Dog Gone Hot Dogs. I am writing to make you aware that the city of Ann Arbor, Michigan's Community Service Area, Planning and Development Service Unit is trying to enforce an ordinance dating back to 1949 (ACT 300) that will prohibit hot dog vendors, such as myself, from conducting business.

Nawnie's Dog Gone Hot Dogs stand is my seasonal source of income and what the City Hall of Ann Arbor, Michigan wants to do is just plain wrong! As you can read in the enclosed article by the Michigan Daily, students of the University of Michigan want the hot dog stands to remain in down town Ann Arbor as much as I do!

As a legally blind and epileptic resident of Washtenaw County, I had to work diligently to get approvals from my doctors as well as financial and vocational support from various agencies to realize my dream of owning my own business. The 2008-2009 season would be the first season that I would have all of the tools necessary to open and run business; and now it is being ripped out of my hands... and for what reason?

I look forward to your assistance in helping me find out why.

Sincerely,

Ms. Miriam Lindsey
