PRESENTATION & WORKGROUP DISCUSSIONPresentation*

Melissa Gumenick, Oxford Properties Associate Director of Business Development will present the work of Mathew Sharum. His recent mural installment on the back exterior of Potbelly Sandwich Shop on State Street represents "a new artistic take on the convergence of university life and the year-round culture of Ann Arbor".

Details can be found here:

Work Group Discussions

1) Sophie Grillet proposes that AAPAC send a welcome message to the new Ypsilanti Public Arts Commission.

Suggested wording: "Ann Arbor Public Art Commission sends fraternal and neighborly greetings to the Ypsilanti Public Arts Commission. We are very happy to see the addition of your Commission in the advancement of public arts in Washtenaw County, and wish you every success through 2021 and beyond."

Perhaps, add something about considering possible joint projects in the future, if both of our articles permit, but just a friendly hello is fine too.

2) Sophie Grillet proposes that AAPAC change name to "Ann Arbor Public Arts Commission."

3) Wasantha Young is a member of Mosaic Artists of Michigan (MAM). Ski Szyniszewski, president and members of MAM have an interest in applying mosaic art throughout the city. From start to finish – installations (wall and ground), fine art, free-standing structures – MAM professional achievements has been recognized in the local, national, and international in both private and juried art communities. Ms. Young seeks AAPAC feedback from re possibilities and collaborations with AAPAC.
