C OLD BUSINESS

ICPOC Training

L. Jackson discussed creating a report listing all trainings completed in 2020. She encouraged commissioners to participate in different forms of trainings i.e., journal articles, books, and webinars. L. Jackson mentioned the training she and S. Burch attended, hosted by the American Bar Association and Georgetown University on Active Bystander Intervention. Also available the Implicit Bias training offered in January by the AAPD with Sgt. Corey Mills.

Standardization of Complaint Review Process with AAPD

F. Todoro discussed the AAPD spreadsheet for complaints they are working on. The plan is to come up with a new process that is agreed upon, that does not change no matter who is on the commission. The process needs more uniformity where all complaints are reviewed in the same manner, all parties involved. Once the spreadsheet is formalized with Ann Arbor Police Chief Cox, and Senior Assistant City Attorney, Arianne Slay we plan to share with the entire commission. She talked about how the City restricts the commission to only three Information Managers, per the Ordinance; to review confidential information on complaints. Information Managers will be allowed to see officer names involved, but a number will be assigned by the AAPD for the public. Ann Arbor Police Chief Cox mentioned there were 29 complaints in 2020.

D NEW BUSINESS

Potential Budget Cuts

J. Walton discussed the City's 5% reduction request. She plan to draft a statement to push-back on the budget cut. She explained the hardship will cost the discretionary budget $7,500. But in reality equals 15% due to the fact the commission has un-negotiable cost they do not control. The actual working budget consist of $50,000. The commission has used few expenditures due to COVID-19. These funds are flexible and can be used in other areas such as Community Outreach. J. Walton asked if any commissioners have suggestions on how the budget should be spent, please send her an email within the next two weeks.
