Hello,

I am renting an apartment in Ann Arbor, I have told my landlord that I wish to renew my lease, but so far he has not sent an updated lease agreement for me to sign. My current lease agreement ends in the middle of June and he is showing the apartment to other potential renters. I believe this is violating the "right to renew" ordinance the city has. I have emailed him twice asking him to send over a lease agreement to renew so I can remain in the apartment a couple more months but he has so far ignored these emails. Let me know if anything can be done.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]
