

City of Ann Arbor
Wednesday Evening Pilot Market Operating Rules

I. PURPOSE

The Wednesday Evening Pilot Market of the City of Ann Arbor Public Market is dedicated to supporting small-scale growers and producers through the creation of a vibrant marketplace that is welcoming to all members of our community. The market aims to preserve both the region's rich agricultural history and foster innovation, while meeting the demands of area residents for additional opportunities to purchase local, fresh food.

II. DEFINITIONS

1. Vendor: A Vendor is a person or business entity that has a complete and approved application on file with the Market Manager. Vendors can grow and offer for sale one or more of the following items: edible grains, fruits, vegetables; live plants, trees, shrubs, cut flowers; apiary products; maple syrup and sugar; general farm products such as eggs and poultry; and, food prepared from such produce, including baked goods, jams, and jellies. A vendor can also sell food items for immediate consumption that are made or prepared at the Market or prior to the Market by the vendor and offered for sale at the Market from a licensed cart.

2. Stalls: A stall is a single numbered or lettered vending space in the Market, as designated by the Market Manager. In the event that all numbered stalls are filled on a given Market day, the Market Manager may create additional temporary lettered stalls on the Market extensions, as he/she deems appropriate.

III. ANNUAL PROCEDURES

1. Vendor Applications

A. Vendors must have completed a vendor application for the upcoming Wednesday Evening Pilot Market season by May 1. Applications shall include a list of all products that will be offered for sale at the Market, copies of all current licenses and inspections pertaining to the business and operations of the vendor, a signed and notarized affidavit, and other relevant information as determined by the Market Manager.

B. Following the May 1 application submittal deadline, the Market Manager may accept additional vendor applications if space is available.

2. Fees for Vendors

A. Stall fees shall be paid by 6 p.m. on each Market day.

B. If a vendor does not notify the Market Manager at least 48 hours prior to an absence, he/she is responsible for a cancellation fee for each stall equal to the daily stall fee, and cannot return to market as a vendor until the cancellation fee has been paid.

other community service organization is assigned a stall, the organization shall pay any required fees before it shall be allowed to operate the assigned stall.

B. Charitable, educational, or other community service organizations shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Wednesday Evening Pilot Market Operating Rules, and shall be considered vendors under Vendor Operations (Section V.1).

C. City-sponsored groups and events shall be assigned space at the discretion of the Market Manager.

V. Market Operations

1. Vendor Operations

A. Vendors shall use the Market in strict accordance with the Wednesday Night Pilot Market Operating Rules, and Chapter 31 of the Ann Arbor City Code.

B. All food and products offered for sale at the Market must be grown or made by the vendor who offers the product for sale.

C. All food and food products offered for sale shall be fresh, clean, wholesome and safe for human consumption and shall be handled, stored, transported and offered for sale in a sanitary manner.

D. All food and food products offered for sale shall be from sources approved or considered satisfactory by the Washtenaw County Health Department and the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

E. Each vendor must provide the Market Manager with a current and valid copy of any and all licenses, registrations, certifications and permits required for operation by any local, state, and federal law.

F. Vendors shall not misrepresent the quantity, quality, type or origin of food or products in any way.

G. All food and products offered for sale at the Market must be grown by the vendor, or made by the vendor in Michigan, Ohio, or Indiana.

H. All vendors shall post a sign with their name and location of their business at their stall. All signs are subject to the approval of the Market Manager.

I. Vendors shall keep their stall areas neat, orderly, and in good repair.

J. Vendors shall keep vending activities within each vendor's designated stall space.

K. Vendors shall only use assigned parking spaces for parking vehicles and for storage of products.

L. Vendors shall not attract attention to their items for sale by outcries in a loud, annoying, or offensive manner, or by standing outside of the stall area.

M. Vendors shall attend market from open to close (4:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.) on a Market day that they are in attendance. Leaving early from Market without providing the Market Manager with a reasonable explanation may result in loss of attendance for that day. Reasonable explanations for leaving early include, but are not limited to, selling out of food or products, extreme weather, and schedule conflicts.

N. Upon vacating each Market day, stalls and parking spaces are to be cleaned and swept by the vendor, and all trash must be removed by the vendor and properly disposed of or placed in an area designated by the Market Manager.

O. Vendors shall not engage in disruptive conduct. Any disagreement between vendors shall be handled in a respectful and professional manner away from stalls and customers.

P. No person at the Market shall refuse to comply with a direction of the Market Manager, or interfere with the administration of the Wednesday Evening Pilot Market Operating Rules as interpreted by the Market Manager or his/her designee.

Q. Vendors may not sell products that are grown on leased land, unless the vendor has significant risk and financial investment in the leased land and its operation, as well as active participation in the production of the product. All leases must be approved annually by the Market Manager.

R. If a vendor markets product as being organic, a copy of the current organic certification must be submitted each year and must be prominently displayed in the vendor's stall each Market day, unless the vendor is exempt from such certification requirements by state or federal law.

S. Although the use of the word "organic" in a legal company name or farm name are not tied to the requirements for organic certification, Wednesday Evening Pilot Market vendors cannot display a business entity or farm name using the word "organic" unless the business entity or farm is certified organic.
