Mayor Christopher Taylor

Dear Mayor Taylor:

The City of Ann Arbor Ann Arbor Employees' Retirement System Board of Trustees is currently composed of nine Trustees, five of whom are citizens appointed by the Mayor, one who serves by virtue of their position as Finance Director, and three who are elected by uniformed and non-uniformed City employees. As of October 19, 1998, all Retirement Board Trustees also serve as Trustees on the Retiree Health Care Benefit Plan & Trust Board (VEBA).

The term for Citizen Trustee Julie Lynch will expire on December 31, 2016, and the Board asks that you accept this as a letter of support and endorsement for her reappointment. Ms. Lynch has faithfully discharged her duties as a member of these two Boards since July 2015 and her expertise as a Trustee has been invaluable.

Ms. Lynch's extensive background in the human resources field has been invaluable in assisting the Board to make many policy-related and hiring decisions required in recent months for both the Retirement System Board of Trustees and the Retiree Health Care Benefit Plan & Trust Board of Trustees.

Pension and VEBA Board meetings are held in the Pension conference room every third Thursday of the month beginning at 8:30AM and we extend an open invitation for you to join us whenever your schedule permits.

We hope you will consider the reappointment of Ms. Lynch to the AAERS.

Sincerely,

Jeremy J. Flack, Chairperson
City of Ann Arbor Employees' Retirement System
& Retiree Health Care Benefit Plan & Trust
Board of Trustees
