Jon and Mia,

I have the unfortunate displeasure of giving you a heads up that I am about to sign a lease on a place to live in Ann Arbor township and will be moving out of my current place as of the 14th of April, 2017. As far as I understand, that likely precludes me from being a ZBA member.

I apologize that I have to vacate this position so soon after joining but my fiancée and I needed to find a first floor place to live given my impending ACL surgery and our only real option was outside of the city limits.

Jeremy

Mayor Christopher Taylor
Larcom City Hall
301 East Huron St
Ann Arbor, MI 48104
ctaylor@a2gov.org

Dear Mayor Taylor,

I am writing to tender my resignation from the Ann Arbor Human Rights Commission. I have appreciated the opportunity to serve our community and to serve with so many committed Commissioners and staff but due to family obligations find that I am no longer able to devote the time our work demands and deserves.

Again, I thank you for this opportunity and If I can be of service in any way, please feel free to contact me at ketacowan@gmail.com or by phone at 734-604-5303.

Sincerely,

Keta J. Cowan
