

Erica Briggs*Executive Policy Advisor for Neighborhood Engagement/Transportation Safety

Erica Briggs is the Executive Director of Scenic Michigan, Chairs the Washtenaw Bicycling and Walking Coalition (WBWC), serves on the Ann Arbor Planning Commission, and is a PhD Candidate in Political Science at Michigan State University where her research is focused on regional transportation policy and planning. Her past professional and volunteer experience in the community includes working as getDowntown Program Director from 2004-2007, serving as Project Manager for WBWC leading a community-wide education campaign for Ann Arbor's pedestrian crossing ordinance, and working as a Program Manager at the Clean Energy Coalition managing the initial development of Ann Arbor's bike share system and Safe Routes to School programming at Clague Middle School. She has served on numerous local and state boards and commissions including the League of Michigan Bicyclists, the Ann Arbor Energy Commission, and Ann Arbor Zoning Board of Appeals.