REPORT FROM STAFF

September 2017 – Staff Report to Art Commission

1. Manhole Art Advisory Committee: A2 Art Center putting together the advisory committee for the manhole art project. Staff request one member of the committee to serve. The Advisory Committee will hold three meetings, one to develop the call for artists, a second to determine public polling and PR strategies, and finally to select the final 4-6 designs that will be voted on by the public.
2. Stadium Boulevard Reconstruction Project: Due to delays in finalizing the PSA for the artwork and obtaining acceptable insurance certificates/endorsements, the work of fabricating and installing the art has been delayed. The artist, Brian Brush, had previous commitments scheduled on other projects and is currently traveling in pursuit of them. Staff has spoken with Brian Brush regarding the art installation and due to these delays the installation will take place next year. Staff working with Brian on a revised schedule for the project.
3. Council Chamber's Art Gallery: The rail system for hanging the art has been installed and accessories provided to the Art Center. The track lighting has been ordered and should be delivered next week for the electrician to install. The protective rail, to keep chairs from backing into the art wall, is a custom piece and is being fabricated. We anticipate delivery the week of the Sept 18th and then staff will install.

4. Contract extension for Victoria Fuller's Canoe Fan: Victorias' contract has extended contract to May 30, 2019. Victorias still in search of a sponsor to purchase and donate this piece to the City.

5. Donation of the "The Cloud" by Ursula Buchegger: Washtenaw County shares that this piece no longer exist. Due to its fragile nature, weather, etc. the piece was dismantled with acceptance of the artist, Ursula Buchegger and from its sister city Tubingen, Germany.

6. Art Evaluation Criteria and Guidelines for Crosswalk Art are with City Administrator for review and approval.
