Hello,

As a relative newcomer to the area (almost three years now) I was amazed at the turmoil and anxiety that people are causing because of the thought of the Jesuits moving into this area. I left Barton Hills where people never would allow such a thing happen there. It has been refreshing living in the city and to have extremely nice and welcoming neighbors. I absolutely love the area and hope that this can be peacefully resolved.

Why does this seem to be such a terrible issue for so many people? There are already a lot of various kinds of student housing as well as things like Ozone house, though I don't know if our Oxbridge area includes them. I went to the meeting held some weeks earlier and never heard a thing about what they decided to do. I had to find out from the neighbors what was happening.

Please put me down as a firm believer in diversity and I would vote to have them in that house. Would you please forward my concerns to the following members of council: Petersen, Lumm, Brier, Kunselman and Taylor. Thank you

Elizabeth Ong
