COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE CITY ADMINISTRATOR

City Administrator Steve Powers updated City Council on the following:

The Ann Arbor Senior Center is temporarily closed due to needed emergency repairs. The closure was made for safety reasons due to problems with the existing ceiling. Other repairs and updates will also be made during this downtime and the Center is expected to reopen the week of September 5.

The City has posted the Fire Chief position. Resumes are being accepted until September 15. Mr. Powers stated he will continue to update Council as the search progresses.

The City's bond rating was reaffirmed recently and remains at AA+.

The public art installation on Kingsley Lane has begun at the rain garden. The art sculpture depicts large fish.

The City's proposed Charter Amendments have been accepted by the Attorney General and is in compliance with the Home Rule Cities Act and can proceed.

Mr. Powers also provided several written reports for the information of Council. Those reports are on file in the City Clerk's Office.
