Proclamation honoring the 50th Anniversary of our Sister City Relationship with Tuebingen, Germany
PROCLAMATION

Honoring the 50th Anniversary of our Sister City Relationship with Tuebingen, Germany

WHEREAS, the year 2015 marks the 50th year of participation in the Sister City program between the government and the people of Tuebingen, Germany; and

WHEREAS, A resolution by City Council of Ann Arbor, Michigan extended an invitation to the City of Tuebingen, Germany, to become a Sister-City in the People to People program and invited the people of Tuebingen to participate by virtue of resolution which was approved on June 1, 1965; and

WHEREAS, the people and government of Tuebingen, Germany and Ann Arbor, Michigan have participated in a Sister City capacity for 50 years for the purpose of creating goodwill and understanding between the people of our two great nations; and

WHEREAS, the relationship between our two cities has been continually nurtured during these 50 years by members of our community who have worked as goodwill ambassadors and organized the cultural exchanges between our two Sister Cities; and

WHEREAS, the City of Ann Arbor wishes to recognize the following people for their continuous efforts to spread goodwill and enhance our cultural awareness: Anne Cox, Brigitte and Christopher Maassen, Lisa MacDonald, Carolyn & Christoph Melcher, Cecelia and Al Paas, Marianne & Hans Rauer and Grace Shackman; and

WHEREAS, the City of Ann Arbor wishes to recognize the following organizations for their hospitality in welcoming and spreading goodwill to our Sister City visitors: Ann Arbor SPARK, the Ann Arbor District Library, Washtenaw Community College and the Ann Arbor Convention and Visitor's Bureau; and

WHEREAS, The City of Ann Arbor commends these citizens for their continued involvement and fostering of international relations through the Sister City Exchange program

NOW THEREFORE, I, Christopher Taylor, Mayor of Ann Arbor, Michigan, do hereby congratulate these citizens for their continued participation in the Sister City exchange program.

I hereby set my hand and seal

This 20th day of July, 2015

Christopher Taylor, Mayor
