An Ordinance to Amend Chapter 61, Signs and Outdoor Advertising, to Allow Portable Exterior Business Signs (Ordinance No. ORD-10-06)

Approval of these amendments to Chapter 61, Signs and Outdoor Advertising, will allow the use of portable exterior business signs, subject to an annual permit and inspection. Such signs currently are not permitted.

Background

On October 5, 2009 City Council passed Resolution R-09-404 establishing a task force to develop regulations for “sandwich board” signs (a/k/a “portable signs”). Council charged the task force with reviewing the existing City policies associated with these signs placed in the public right-of-way, framing recommendations for more effective placement and size regulations, and identifying appropriate fees.

The Sandwich Board Sign Task Force, chaired by Councilmember Briere, met twice in November 2009 and provided the following recommendations:

- The task force agreed that the ordinance should apply to the City as a whole, not just those businesses in the Downtown Development Authority district.
- The task force agreed that the ordinance should apply to any business, not just those on the ground floor.
- The task force was unable to find a way to accommodate off-premises signs legally and simply.
- The task force agreed that any business that already paid for a sidewalk occupancy permit didn't need to pay additional fees for a sandwich board (i.e., portable) sign, as long as the sign fit within the area of their occupancy permit.

- The task force agreed that more than one business sign could occupy space in front of a building (in the situation where there are up- or down-stairs tenants) as long as the space reserved for the signs and/or occupancy remains legal.
- The task force agreed that the timing of the permit for a sandwich board sign should be the same as that of the sidewalk occupancy except during the first year (assuming the ordinance receives Council approval). In the first year, permits for signs would run from the first day such permits are available - or issued - through the 31st of April, 2011.
- The task force did not agree on the fee schedule. The statements of people present were that the fee for the permit should be fair and not prohibitively expensive. Members of the business community - entirely from the downtown areas - wanted the fees kept as low as possible. Suggestions ranged from a low of $20 to a high of $35.

Proposed Amendments

Based on the task force recommendations, staff developed draft amendments to Chapter 61, Signs and Outdoor Advertising (attached).

These draft changes include 1) allowing on-premise portable exterior business signs throughout the City with an approved permit, 2) allowing the placement of signs in the right-of-way if no land is available in front of such businesses, 3) limiting the size of the sign, 4) requiring signs be moved indoors after business hours and when more than one inch of snow falls to allow time to clear sidewalks, and 5) provisions for a portable exterior business sign permit to be revoked by the Administrator upon a finding that the portable sign does not meet the standards of this Section, any other provisions of this Code or other applicable law.

Staff Comments

In drafting the amendments, staff has identified three issues that may arise as a result of the changes:

Applicability: The task force recommended that portable signs be allowed for any business in the City. Since portable signs are intended to be viewed primarily by pedestrians and slower moving vehicular traffic, staff recommends the amendments be revised to apply only to those businesses located within the D1 and D2 downtown districts. Portable signs located outside of the downtown area have the potential to create visual clutter and transportation hazards. As drafted, the amendments would allow multiple-tenant commercial buildings and shopping centers located along major transportation corridors to place one portable sign per business on-premises in front of each development. Since this effort was initiated to address downtown signs, the expansion to the rest of the City seems premature at this time.

Size: The proposed ordinance allows for portable signs of up to 4 feet in height occupying no more than 4 square feet. This will allow for a relatively tall sign. Staff recommends a maximum height of 3 feet.

Fee: The task force recommended an annual permit fee ranging between $20-35. Staff estimates the cost of review, inspection and processing of an annual portable exterior business sign permit to be $65. Staff recommends that the fee be set at $65. If the proposed amendments are approved at first reading, staff will submit a resolution at second reading to revise the Planning and Development Services fees to include this new permit fee.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTIONS 5:501, 5:502, AND 5:508 OF CHAPTER 61 (SIGNS AND OUTDOOR ADVERTISING) OF TITLE V OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF ANN ARBOR.

The City of Ann Arbor Ordains:

Where a sign has 2 or more faces, the area of all faces shall be included in determining the area of the sign. Where a sign consists solely of lettering painted or mounted on a wall, any blank area which is more than 10 percent of the area of the sign as otherwise computed shall be disregarded.
- (2) Billboard. An off-premises sign with an area in excess of 200 square feet.
- (3) Building. A permanent structure for human occupation to which the sign relates.
- (4) Business. Any legal use of a building, other than for a religious institution, day care center, school, home occupation, or residence by a person, firm or corporation. - (7) Exterior Sign. Any sign other than an interior sign.
- (8) Frontage. The length of the portion of a building occupied by a single business facing a street adjacent to the premises on which the business is located.

- (9) Interior Sign. A sign within the walls of a building.

Letters or numbers 4 inches or smaller in height and punctuation marks are not counted in computing a number of message units. When a business has a sign with identical sign messages facing opposite directions, only the message units on 1 side of each such pair shall be counted in computing the permitted number of message units.
- (12) Minimum height shall be measured from grade or sidewalk to the lowest edge of the sign surface or its projecting structure.
- (13) Off-Premises Sign. A sign other than an on-premises sign.
- (14) On-Premises Sign. A sign which advertises only goods, services, facilities, events, or attractions on the premises where located.

The definition includes interior and exterior signs but not signs primarily directed at persons within the premises of the sign owners. (e) No person shall maintain a portable exterior business sign:

- (i) that is not constructed of durable, weather-proof materials, that has sharp edges, or that has any protrusions or features that could be hazardous to pedestrians.
- (ii) that will not withstand wind without tipping over, rocking or sliding.
- (iii) that has any moving parts or electrical devices, including lights.
- (iv) that resembles any official traffic control device or uses any symbol associated with a traffic control device.
- (v) in a location where it could interfere with the opening of vehicle doors in locations where a vehicle may legally stop, stand, or park or where the sign could obstruct a person exiting such a vehicle, including at ramps, cab stands, loading zones, bus stops, driveways, and parking lot aisles.
- (vi) in a location where it obstructs the free and uninterrupted passage of the public along the sidewalk.

(h) A portable exterior business sign permit may be revoked by the Administrator upon a finding that the portable sign does not meet the standards of this Section, any other provisions of this Code or other applicable law or that the space is needed for other sidewalk purposes or as provided for the revocation of permits under Chapter 76. Upon a revocation because the space is needed for other sidewalk purposes, only, the fee paid for any period after the revocation of the permit shall be refunded.
