Resolution to Approve the Community Development Services Contract with Washtenaw County ($165,000 FY23; $165,000 FY24; $165,000 FY25; $165,000 FY26)

Attached for consideration is a resolution authorizing a contract between the City of Ann Arbor and Washtenaw County.

The current four-year contract authorized via R-18-380 on September 17, 2018 ends June 30, 2022. This contract provides the mechanism for the continuing collaborative efforts between the City and Washtenaw County to execute community development functions through the Office of Community and Economic Development (OCED), including coordinating City and County human service activities and operational functions of OCED.

The service contract is for FY23, FY24, FY25, and FY26. The expense for the contracts is budgeted in FY 2023 at this time, and will be included in future biannual budget considerations.
