Subject: Safe Routes to School/Green Road

Dear Stephen, Dear Sabra --

If there is the opportunity, please share the following with the Mayor and City Council.

The Orchard Hills Maplewood Homeowners Association also voted to support the Safe Routes Thurston grant and the resolution being brought to Council, this evening (through Wendy Carman.)

Beyond the Safe Routes grant, I ask the Mayor and City Council to look at further administrative measures for the sake of and the safety of pedestrians walking along and crossing Green Road, specifically lowering the speed limit, or implementing a traffic control measure - stop light or mulit-way stop.

This recommendation that has been strongly supported in discussions at Safe Routes to School community meetings, and in my personal conversations with residents of Maplewood, Orchard Hills,

Chapel Hill, and with management staff at the Windemere. Because of the nature of traffic in the area, it would have to be an administrative decision from the City Council to implement this request.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration on these matters,

Jane Klingsten

Subject: SAFER grants for Ann Arbor Fire Department

Dear Mayor Hieftje and members of Ann Arbor City Council,

I am writing this email today to express Ann Arbor Firefighters' concern about our city not taking an opportunity to bring back laid off firefighters. There is currently a national grant called SAFER that would bring back laid off firefighters for two years. It fully pays for their cost for two years, if awarded. I enlisted our international union, the IAFF, for their support in guidance and believed we had administrative support through Chief Lanza and Chief Jones. It recently came to our attention that Mr Fraser was not in support of the grant because he believes there will be further layoffs. This grant is the perfect opportunity to return staffing to the appropriate level at the least cost to the city. We are enlisting your support to speak to the administrator and persuade him otherwise. The grant application period is very short, ending on the 17th of September. Please contact me at your earliest convenience this week to discuss possible solutions. I will check email frequently or feel free to call me.

Sincerely,
Matt Schroeder

Hi Christopher. I am helping the Michigan Theater with a special fundraising event and I'd be delighted if you and Eva could join me. It's a breakfast on Tuesday, Sept. 21 at 8:00 a.m. on the stage of the Michigan Theater. We'll have breakfast and hear from Russ Collins about all the Michigan Theater programs. It is a fundraising event but there will be no hard sell and no obligation. Please let me know if you can come on the 21st. You should be able to be out of there by 9.

Thanks!!

Hi Kathleen,

Thanks so much. Rose Ave. is covered, the Wagoner family will post flyers. But the name tags and sharpies would be great. If you can't make it ☺, just drop them by my house. You could put them in the chest on the deck that is under the window. It is water proof. Let the lid fall down by itself. It has one of those pneumatic things that will break if the lid is pushed closed.

Hope you can make it. Nancy Leff

Here is another copy of the flyer anyway!

I fully support the upholstered couch ban on porches. Our management company has never allowed couches on porches. And certainly there are other fire safety issues, but banning upholstered couches will go a long way to eliminating this potential fire source.

a list of the neighborhood streets. If one or two folks from each street would volunteer to post a flyer on their street, we will be able to notify everyone. Email me, Nancy Leff, at [REDACTED] if you can take a street.

We need a few volunteers to help with set up and cleanup of the party.
Last year we managed to organize the party with a few emails sent back and forth among the volunteers. If you can take on any of the items on the checklist, below and attached, email me at [REDACTED]

Thanks and hope to see everyone again this year!

I'll take Sycamore. I'm also happy to organize kids' activities again. (If someone else wants a turn that's fine with me too but otherwise I'll do something similar to last year.)

Thanks for organizing this, Nancy!

Subject: Residential Parking Permit Program

Ms. Higgins,

I am writing concerning the Ann Arbor Residential Parking Permit Program. I live in a 40-unit apartment building at [REDACTED]. This building has a very small parking lot that accommodates approximately 4-5 cars. I have therefore been parking on the street since I moved into the building in August 2009. I was not aware until I returned to Ann Arbor last weekend that a residential parking permit program had been created. Today, I went to go purchase a parking permit and was told that the allotment for my building had already been reached and that I therefore could not purchase a permit.

I am writing to ask that you please expand the allotment for my building. The Residential Parking Permit website states: "The Residential Parking Permit (RPP) program allows vehicles owned by residents to park in an RPP neighborhood for the posted time limit without being ticketed." I am a resident of an RPP neighborhood and it is not acceptable that I am not being issued a permit so that I may park near my home. It is not an adequate solution for me to have to move my car from one side of the street to the other every day. I am a busy graduate student in the field of Public Health and do not have any other options for parking within a reasonable distance to my apartment. I would greatly appreciate your quick attention to this matter.

Thank you,

Christina Koster

Subject: NAMI Walk for Crisis Intervention Teams - only 17 days away!

Dear Friends

I am writing you today to tell you about an upcoming event that I am participating in that is both very important and very exciting to me. It is NAMIWalks for the Mind of America, NAMI's signature walkathon event that is being held here in Michigan on September 25, 2010.

Like many others my family and friends have been deeply affect by mental illness. I have been working for the last 6 years on Crisis Intervention Teams that train police to de-escalate crises of people with brain disorders. That's why I called my walk page: CITMichigan. Now I need your help!

I would like to ask you to donate and support my participation in this great event. Visit my personal walker page to sign up: www.nami.org/namiwalks10/MIC/CITMichigan. It features a link to my team's page there where you can see who else is walking with me. There is also a link so you can donate directly to me online. Donating online is fast and secure, and I'll get immediate notification via e-mail of your donation.

NAMI, the Nation's Voice on Mental Illness, formerly the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, is the largest education, support and advocacy organization that serves the needs of all those whose lives are touched by these illnesses. This includes persons with mental illness, their families, friends, employers, the law enforcement community and policy makers. The NAMI organization is composed of approximately 1100 local affiliates, 50 state offices and a national office.

The goals of the NAMIWalks program are: to fight the stigma that surrounds mental illness, to build awareness of the fact that the mental health system in this country needs to be improved and to raise funds for NAMI so that they can continue their mission.

NAMI is a 501(c)3 charity and any donation you make to support my participation in this event is tax deductible. NAMI has been rated by Worth magazine as among the top 100 charities "most likely to save the world" and has been given an "A+" rating by The American Institute of Philanthropy for efficient and effective use of charitable dollars. NAMI has also been given 4 out of 4 stars by The Charity Navigator for short-term spending practices and long-term sustainability.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely,

Bob,

I received your letter to the Mayor and City Council from Sandy Arlinghaus and I'm surprised that she didn't mention that the City has no plans to sell the Huron Hills Golf Course or any other park land. I'm currently on the Parks Advisory Commission and at our last meeting we reviewed the RFP which the City has just released for bid. The request is rather specific in that it states:

"The City is seeking creative proposals to maximize the recreational golf opportunities available at HHGC to the community. Currently, HHGC operates as an 18-hole course with 7 holes north of Huron Parkway and 11 holes south of Huron Parkway. The land may remain similar in layout to its current form, or may be recommended for alternative (any physical improvement or alteration to the course shall retain as its function recreational golf) golf use in the submitted proposal. The City will retain ownership of the buildings and property, and any improvements will become the property of the City. All proposals, whether based on the existing course design or an alternative design proposal, must incorporate the following principles:

1. Commitment to growing the game of golf.
2. Conduciveness to entry level golfers.
3. Accessibility and affordability of recreational golf opportunities, especially for children and seniors.
4. To better serve the Ann Arbor golf community."

I added the bolding. The intent of the RFP is to solicit ideas for how the golf operation at Huron Hills can be run more effectively and perhaps more profitably than we are currently. I, and probably everyone on PAC, believe that the current staff is doing an excellent job, but since questions do arise about the profitability of the course, we concur with City Council and the City Administrator that we would benefit from testing the waters and seeing what alternatives exist.

If you would like to speak about this further, please let me know.

PAC members,

I too must apologise for missing the LAC meeting, no excuses, I just kept thinking today was Monday and was fully prepared to show up tomorrow, a day late and a synapse short.

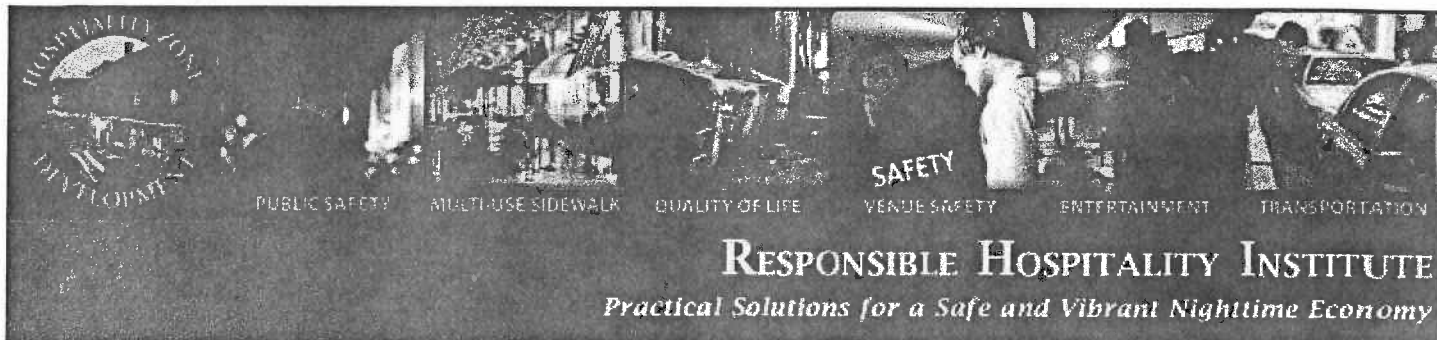

Sorry,

Tim

Fellow PAC members,
Sincere apologies for missing the LAC meeting today. I was to pick up my wife at school where she teaches and wisk my way over to the meeting. First day of school and she is to wait with her kids till the busses come. They arrived 40 minutes late... Hmmm, a few bugs to be worked out with new county wide system.
By the time I got over to Cobblestone, I saw Julie drive away and got a chance to say hello to Colin.
Sorry to miss the meeting.
best,

STAY UP-TO-DATE ON GLOBAL NIGHTLIFE NEWS

This month's news stories feature cities with innovative strategies to address underage drinking, over-service and safety within venues, as well as strategies for mobilizing nightlife stakeholders as collaborative partners.

NIGHTLIFE VIOLENCE SPURS ACTION IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, PA – After a recent shooting in the South Side area, City Councilman Bruce Kraus emphasized the need for the city of Pittsburgh to change the way it manages nightlife. Currently, the city “has provided garbage receptacles, deployed police bicycle patrols and taken other measures to help the community,” but Kraus asserts the city will need to make additional changes to resolve safety challenges. Recently, his administration released a comprehensive plan of suggestions on topics such as public transportation, a parking strategy and late-night code enforcement.

EXTENDING BAR CLOSING HOURS AND LICENSING BUSKERS

Edmonton, AB – A group of residents, club operators, landlords, police, non-profits and other organizations on Jasper Avenue have created a list of nightlife recommendations for the city. Among the priority action steps is to allow bars to stay open until 4 a.m., but still cut off alcohol sales at 2a.m., in order to reduce the “rush hour” that occurs with a common closing time. The group also proposes the creation of a standard disclosure form to inform new residents of nightlife activity in the area before they move in, since the area around “a building that doesn't look very active in the daytime might be very much different at two in the morning.” Additional recommendations include a dedicated police unit and licensing street performers to increase the diversity and quality of the performers.

VIDEO ON THE IMPACT OF NIGHTLIFE ACTIVITY ON RESIDENTS

Brighton and Hove, England – City Councilor Kitcat has released a video online depicting what a typical Friday night is like on East Street and how it affects the residents' quality of life. Part of a broader initiative, an “inter-agency summit” has also been proposed to create solutions for noise and safety challenges in the nighttime economy. Summit participants will consist of council officers, police, club managers and residents. Representatives hope to rely “on the good relations (already) established with some of the venues in the street” to move progress forward.

ROWDY PARTIERS IN SEATTLE FACE TICKETS

Seattle, WA – City council in Seattle has passed a new law allowing police officers to issue civil infractions to people in “nightlife zones” located in urban areas such as Belltown. Police will now be able to write tickets for up to $100 to individuals who create unreasonable amounts of noise, threaten others or fight between the hours of midnight and 5a.m. The law is part of a more comprehensive plan that Mayor Mike McGinn has recently unveiled for nightlife in Seattle, such as a proposed extension of bar closing time

NY NIGHTLIFE CLUB OWNERS BASH NUISANCE POINTS SYSTEM

Rochester, NY – The city council in Rochester has voted to place a six month moratorium on the nuisance point system used for nightlife establishments due to allegations that the system is complicated, unclear and ineffective in addressing safety and quality of life challenges. The point system assigns points to establishments for illegal activities such as drug offenses, gambling, and prostitution. An accumulation of points can lead to closing the business. Some business owners allege that police officers are inconsistent in their decisions to fine or issue points to an establishment. Due to current challenges, business owners, city council members and community residents are pushing to create an advisory board to evaluate and oversee the distribution of points in the future.

CRACKDOWN ON NIGHTLIFE VIOLENCE IN AUSTRALIA

Brisbane, Australia – A new plan released by Premier Anna Bligh in Queensland proposes a 40% increase in police officers on patrol and new legislation to ban troublemakers from entertainment areas. The Drink Safe Precincts trial, a statewide strategy to combat incidents in key entertainment areas, follows a 12-month parliamentary inquiry into alcohol-fueled violence in nightclub areas. Many recommendations have already been implemented, including a provision requiring businesses to provide free water for patrons in nightclubs and designated "safe zones" for anyone in distress. On Friday and Saturday nights the area will have a coordinated response team consisting of police, venue staff, paramedics and welfare workers.
