Hello there,

This serves as a formal resignation from the Ann Arbor Commission on Disability Issues, effective today, 2/15/23. I've attended today's meeting which will serve as my final involvement.

My reasoning for resigning/not renewing my term for the commission are purely logistical and not by desire. As I know it to be true, commissioners are to live within the city limits of the city they serve, and an exception was made in 2021 when I moved to Ypsilanti. I am now moving to Wayne county, so this will hinder my ability to remain on the commission.

I want to thank the city of Ann Arbor, Mayor Taylor and council members for allowing me to serve for 4 years. I wish you the best.

Thanks,
Christiana Allen-Pipkin
