I – Call to Order

Chairperson Leslie Stambaugh called the meeting to order and Amy Seavitt recorded the minutes for members' information. A quorum of Commission members were present, and the meeting, having been duly convened, was ready to proceed with business.

II – Opening

- Roll call for the meetings' minutes.
- Changes to and approval of the agenda
 - L. Winkler moved to approve and seconded by E. Adenekan – all in favor.
- Public comments – none

III – Matters Discussed – Old Business

- Approval of the November Minutes – Discussed that the agenda be approved by amending sections from Committee Members Present, Also Present, I. Call to Order, III. Matters Discussed – Old Business, IV. Matters Discussed – New Business, and VII. Adjournment.
 - E. Adenekan moved to approve and seconded by N. Elyakin – all in favor.
- The Video Ordinance Proposal
 - Chairperson L. Stambaugh provided an update on her meetings with both the Service Area Administrator and the Chief of Police.
- Anti-Gay House Bills – The Commission discussed the passing of the House bills that Governor Snyder has signed and how the ACLU plans to challenge it.

IV – Matters Discussed – New Business

- Proposed Resolution on Immigration – The Commission discussed the proposed Resolution to Oppose Increased Immigration Enforcement and Support Immigrant Families and found they were in agreement with the spirit of the proposal. Having not seen the final draft of the resolution, it was agreed that they could not co-sponsor it or support it directly, but could publically support the spirit behind it. They will draft a narrative that supports the resolution in general terms and potentially take it to Council. The Commission also discussed the disruption to the City and how the people of the community have been subjected to ICE profiles.

V – Agenda Building for Next Meeting

- Chairperson L. Stambaugh proposed another work session for the Commission to take place on Wednesday, January 25th.
- Commissioner N. Elyakin thanked Chairperson L. Stambaugh for the retreat that the Commission had held earlier that evening, stating that it was powerful and the team accomplished many things.

VII – Adjournment – at 8:41 PM, N. Elyakin motioned to adjourn the meeting. L. Winkler seconded it. Meeting adjourned.
