V NEW BUSINESS

a Amendment To Source of Income Provision of Non Discrimination Ordinance

Commissioner Moore discussed Memo from herself and WHA member Libby Benton that proposed amending the "source of income" provision of the Human Rights Ordinance. The goal would be to expand the definition of source of income to protect individuals utilizing housing subsidies against discrimination by landlords. The memo was also forwarded to Margaret Radabaugh of the city attorney's office for further review.

*[Commissioner Moore spoke about the Wastenaw Housing Alliance (WHA). The concerns about what constitute income, and making changes to the ordinance. Also Commission Moore will talk to Margaret Radabaugh concerning income provision.]

b Proposed Ordinance Prohibiting Conversion Therapy

Commissioner Moore discussed memo forwarded from the mayor, and written by University of Michigan law student in support of having Ann Arbor adopt an ordinance that prohibited conversion therapy. Moore indicated that there would likely be concerns regarding how such an ordinance would impact freedom of religion and freedom of speech. Commissioners also discussed reviewing sample ordinances from localities in neighboring states, such as Ohio. Moore agreed to provide information to address these concerns. The memo was also forwarded to the city attorney's office for further review.

*[The commission mentioned several issues that still need to be addressed. No vote was taken at this time. Plan to revisit in May.]
