Hi my husband and I signed up to make a comment on ZBA20-003 2908 Scottwood avenue application to build an extra tall solid stone wall around their property. I put a comment online but I am not sure that it was registered as an objection. We object to an extra tall solid fence because very few people in this area even have a front fence. Even back yard fences are not solid tall stone walls. A fence of this description and size is out of keeping with the neighborhood. We are not a gated community. A low stone wall along Fair oaks parkway is in keeping with this road and neighborhood.
