REPORT FROM THE CHAIR

Chair Carter reported that the annual report will be completed soon. The annual report will be a formal report that will be available in hardcopy and electronic format for community members. Chair Carter asked commissioners to review the drafted recommendations for the annual report.

Chair Carter stated that the March commission meeting is anticipated to be a Public Forum. Chair Carter discussed that the March commission meeting possibly will include an introduction from the new Ann Arbor Police Chief. The commission discussed that the location of the March meeting could be held again at the Neighborhood Peace Center. The final decision of the March commission meeting will be discussed at the next commission meeting.

Chair Carter updated the commission on the unarmed crisis response project. L. Song reported that City Council is working on reissuing the unarmed crisis response RFP. The unarmed crisis response effort has not been cancelled. More information and details are to come.

Chair Carter shared that the Executive Summary from the Department of Justice has been sent out to commission. Chair Carter has asked commissioners to review the executive summary and share any thoughts or questions. Chair Carter also stated that the Michigan State Police has conducted research on Michigan State Troopers and commissioners are welcomed to review the research and share any thoughts or feedback with the commission.

Chair Carter reported that the Ann Arbor Police Department has hired five new police officers for the City of Ann Arbor. The total number of City police officers is now 108 and the City is authorized to have 122. Chair

Carter stated that the City needs more police officers to do community policing to create better community relationships between officers and residents.
