Subject: Planning commission public comment

Hi planning commission,

I really appreciate you opening up an additional public comment time tonight for people who arrived in-person at the old (7 pm) start time. However, I was disappointed to see that this was not extended to those of us who joined online at 7 PM.

Please remember that some of us have reasons why we can't attend in-person and provide us the same courtesy you do to those who are able to. I wouldn't be asking this had you not opened an additional time for the folks who were late, but in-person, to speak. But if you're going to allow people to speak, please keep it equitable.

Thanks,

Alex Lowe
