

Consignment Inventory Agreement

Tyndale Enterprises, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation, with offices and its principal place of business located at 5050 Applebutter Road, Pipersville, PA 18947 ("Tyndale") offers Ann Arbor a _____ company with its principal offices located at _____ employees the option to return garments to Tyndale up to 60 days after receipt of an order.

- 1. Tyndale accepts returns on unwashed, unworn, unaltered items, and for any reason within 60 days of receipt of an order.
- 2. Tyndale accepts returns of branded garments/items that meet the above parameters and are not branded with a personalized name. "Branded" refers to garments that have been embroidered, or have heat transfers, patches, or screen printing applied.
- 3. Tyndale does not accept returns of washed, worn or altered items.
- 4. This agreement refers to three types of garments, defined as the following:
Consignment: branded consigned garments that are available for purchase in one or more Company catalogs.
Obsolete: branded consigned garments that are not available or no longer available for purchase in Company catalog(s). Obsolete garments may be discontinued items by the manufacturer (Tyndale or other) or items that were removed by Company. An expired customer logo may also contribute to an item becoming obsolete.
Altered/Custom: any garment that has been altered or custom-made to meet the specific needs of a wearer, including name branding. These garments are not returnable.
- 5. Tyndale to track all branded items returned, and will utilize returned items to fill future orders for the same items for Company.
- 6. On an ongoing quarterly basis, Tyndale and Company will review the details of the most current consignment inventory. At this time, Company will be asked to purchase any/all obsolete inventory. We recommend using obsolete garments for your site visitors/contractors, and/or for new hires awaiting full garment receipt.
- 7. Company will provide a payment form and shipping address for obsolete inventory within these terms:
[X] Standing payment form and shipping address (preferred)
[] Within 1-3 weeks of the quarterly review
- 8. Company will provide a primary point-of-contact(s) to work with Tyndale in handling the quarterly review process.
- 9. Upon any contract termination, Tyndale will provide Company with the consignment items and Company will purchase all of the items at the contract price.
- 10. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by either Party with thirty (30) days' advance written notice.
