APPROVAL OF MINUTES

21-1717 ICPOC August Meeting Minutes

A motion was made by M. Othman, seconded by J. Walton that the Minutes be Approved with changes by the Commission and forwarded to the City Council and should be returned by 11/1/2021. On a voice vote, L. Jackson declared the motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

Update on ICPOC Complaint Review

F. Todoro-Hargreaves discussed current developments regarding ICPOC complaints. The commission receives monthly report logs showing the status of AAPD complaint investigations. Complaint reviews are improving. Commissioners still have some obstacles with technology, but a meeting is planned for the near future. There is a total of 29 complaints in 2020, with 9 more to review in the coming weeks. Currently 16 complaints have been received for 2021. Some are still pending with AAPD once completed Information Managers will review. L.

Jackson discussed ICPOC is drafting a template with information collected from other municipalities to create summaries of the cases reviewed more expeditiously, afterwards post on ICPOC webpage where the public can review the status and outcome.

ICPOC Training Plan

L. Jackson discussed formalizing ICPOC's training plan created by J. Walton. The commission made changes and want to use the plan as a living and breathing document to review annually. The plan suggest 25% of commissioners be credentialed as certified practitioners of oversight. L. Jackson went on to add commissioners need at least 45 credit hours of NACOLE certified training and attend 2 annual conference within 3 years and required training in six different core competencies. All information is available at NACOLE.org. Any suggestions, please send to J. Walton for review. J. Walton motioned to adopt the ICPOC Training Plan, seconded by M. Othman. Motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS

Commissioner Criteria

L. Jackson ask commissioners to think about a criteria that will align with our strategic planning goals when reviewing new commissioners. Look strategically at areas of improvement moving towards the future.

NACOLE Conference Trainings Update

L. Jackson discussed the ongoing NACOLE online conference trainings open now through October 7, 2021. She suggested two worth viewing; Arbitration for Oversight and Data Analysis Session.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEES

No committee report.

COMMUNICATIONS

M. Othman expressed condolences to Chair Jackson and Vice-Chair Todoro-Hargreaves on the recent lost in their families.

M. Othman reported on the CREW Study Group they met with members from the Michigan Prison Re-Entry Initiative (MPRI) and the Brighter Way program run by a former MPRI inmate. The group is reviewing long-term issues such as housing and transportation.
