RECRUITING

F. Todoro-Hargreaves reported the current vacancies and announced the commission is in the process of recruiting. If anyone is interested in police oversight and being involved in the community-the commission will provide oversight training. Interested applicants can contact ICPOC at: ICPOC@a2gov.org. In the future the commission plans to reach out to the community at upcoming events to spread the word.

COMMUNICATIONS

Unarmed Response Public Forum:

S. Carter reported on her meeting and notes with Professional Sector Consultants (PSC) on Unarmed Response regarding inclusion of under-served communities. S. Carter explained there are still unanswered questions that need to be addressed and the commission will have to wait until the report comes out. CM Song added the success of the program lies with the City and PSC is not the final decision makers. They collect the information and the City will design the program. Please reach out to the City Council and City Administrator with your concerns.

IT Generated Reports:

M. Othman request to meet with IT to review how data generated from AAPD can be standardized for Information Managers to write their reviews and recommendations on complaints.

Report from Council:

CM Song reported the City authorized settlement of Rasiel Alvarez-Rodriguez v. City of Ann Arbor. Council members visited Delonis Center last week to get an understanding of the increase in needs, now that warming centers are opening up and colder weather is here. The federal relief money for eviction, protections and avoidance ended in September and hundreds of evictions cases are in the courts now.

New Police Chief Search

F. Todoro-Hargreaves reported the City is currently working on a contract with Baker Tilly, once the contract is approved Baker Tilly representative will reach out to ICPOC and the commission will work together in the search process. F. Todoro-Hargreaves will give the commission an update.

Update on ICPOC Working Session

F. Todoro-Hargreaves announced the Working Session will be this Saturday, January 28th at City Hall, in the Basement Conference Room A starting at 12:00 p.m. Please send D. Jeanes your lunch choice.
