REPORT FROM THE CHAIR

Chair Carter recognized the 5 year anniversary of the murder of George Floyd. The commission also expressed recognition of the anniversary as well.

Chair Carter shared that the Symposium event went well. Chair Carter thanked the commissioners that helped and assisted with the event as well as all those who attended. Chair Carter reported that she received really good feedback from the event and will be planning to host another symposium next year. More information and details to come.

Chair Carter discussed that the commission was asked to change locations of the June meeting. Commissioners shared their feedback and input on relocating the June commission meeting. The commission will check if the June meeting can be hosted at an Ann Arbor library branch. More information and details to come.

Chair Carter reported that there is an error on the commissions 2024 annual report. A corrected page will be drafted and re-shared out with the public. More information and details to come. Chair Carter also announced that the 2025 Commission election for Chair and Vice Chair will take today later under old business. Commissioners were asked to consider nominations for the position. Chair Carter also shared that the commission will need to create or design a committee that focuses on succession and recruitment. The committee will be titled the Planning Committee.

Chair Carter shared that the commission will participate in two upcoming events in June. The commission will be hosting a table at the Downtown African American Festival on Saturday, June 7, 2025 and the Ann Arbor Juneteenth on Saturday, June 14, 2025. The commission will be sharing the table along side the Ann Arbor Human Rights Commission and the Ann Arbor Commission on Disability Issues. Commissioners were asked to participate and all are welcomed to attend.

Chair Carter shared that the one of the founding members of ICPOC, Shirley Beckly, passed away last month. The commission will be planning and discussing ways to honor her for her community work for many years. The commission will began the planning process. More information and details to come.

Chair Carter reported that the Ann Arbor Community Land Trust is moving forward with the development of 24 new homes that will be in a lottery for city employees to apply for. Chair Carter encouraged AAPD staff to apply for one of the homes and provided contact information for anyone who may have questions or concerns.

Chair Carter reported that Commissioner Bonnie Billups Jr. has completed two terms of service on the commission. His term will end at the end of this month. Chair Carter presented commissioner Billups with a certificate and recognized his hard work and dedication to the commission. Commissioner Billups thanked Chair Carter and the commission for the recognition.
