d COMMUNITY RESPONSE GROUP

[L. Stambaugh suggested that the Community Response Group should be revitalized by the commission, as it hasn't been in place for a few years. She explained how this type of response group would serve as a source of aid and support to people that are involved in these crimes. The response group originally started when the HRC could not answer complaints, so this is how they connected to the community. She gave some examples of the types of hate crimes that the commission's past response group has been able to help resolve.

The commission discussed ways that they could get this group going again, and who they should reach out to for help. They also discussed the many ways that this would help someone who has been involved in one of these crimes. K. Moore will be drafting a resolution to City Council regarding the Community Response Group and recent hate crimes.]

L. STAMBAUGH SUGGESTED THAT THE COMMUNITY RESPONSE GROUP BE REVITALIZED BY THE COMMISSION, AS IT HASN'T BEEN ACTIVE FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS..
