Hi Erica,

I'm following the PROS Plan that is on the Planning Commission for tomorrow, Tuesday, 10/18. The agenda indicates in part that "Planning Commission action to forward draft plan to City Council for review and authorization to distribute to adjoining municipalities. The draft plan incorporates feedback the city received through an online survey and public meeting."

It would be helpful to understand what additional steps are required, including which adjoining municipalities may be involved. My specific interest is with how the PROS Plan can support our going for grants and other funding for the Center of the City. I've copied Adam on this message.

I have only skimmed the draft plan, and would like to know that timeline and steps that are expected prior to its final form presentation to City Council.

Thank you,

Rita
