Mike,

FYI -- Mr. Halman spoke during pub. commentary and is asking council to not support the Bd's recommendation. Don't know if you're here to field any Q's, or if council should go into Exec. Session in order to discuss the recommendation.

Thanks, Jane

Hi CM Ackerman,

I know we haven't always agreed on city council stuff, but your rebuttal to that Henry tonight was amazing. You said that perfectly.

I had no idea he did all of that at your place of worship (or any place of worship) that when he spoke in opposition of Lockwood with me and my neighborhood and I will vow to never let him speak with me or next to me ever again.

Happy New Year Zach,

Thank you for your service to our city,

I'm still here.....Lockwood was just the beginning. LOL. :)

I agree with you totally on his foul behavior tonight and for years,

Beth

Dear Council Member Ackerman,

Thank you so much for speaking up at tonight's council meeting against the anti-semitic rhetoric of Mr. Herskovitz. I greatly admire your bravery and your resolve to not allow his kind of hateful ugly form of anti-semitism go without calling it out for what it is.

Respectfully,

Cathy Shafer
Citizen of Ward 4

I was fully prepared for you to take ca-17 off the consent agenda. I appreciate your position on mid year budget amendments and FTE changes and I appreciate your ability to support this resolution for all the reasons you stated.

Thank you,

Jennifer

Thanks, Mike. Appreciate your offer, and no need. We postponed consideration of this recommendation to the next meeting. In the interim, it would probably be helpful for council to receive more detailed information re: the Bd's. recommendation. Specifically, there seems to be some confusion about the appeal process (I did speak to this and shared that Mr. Halman had two appeal presentations before the Bd.), and what caused the back-up, and the city's liability.

Thanks again, Jane

Hi Zack,

Thank you so much for your words at the council meeting tonight! You really tapped into the heart of the issue for us - citizen oversight is increasing across the country and Michigan. LEIN clearance isn't arduous and they almost trained me accidentally; I think MSP needs to be compelled to consider clearance for citizen oversight entities.

If you have time to meet for coffee in the next few weeks, I'd really love to do so.

Just wanted to compliment you on your comments about anti semitism at the meeting tonight.

It's so insidious, and sounds so logical, but yet so fake.

Thank you for standing up for all of us.

Dear Ms. Shafer,

Thank you for your kind words. I believe that everyone has a right to be heard and I am sorry that you have the (likely quite correct) impression that you are unheard by a majority of city council.

Unfortunately it seems that the deer cull is here to stay, even beyond this extra fifth year. I will of course try to have any funding for it removed from the FY 2021 budget; in the meantime I encourage you to contact or continue to contact council members and others in our community to raise awareness of this issue and express your concerns.

Sincerely,

Jeff Hayner

Dear Councilmember Hayner,

Thank you for acknowledging the presence of the anti-deer cull folks at the council meeting tonight.

We often feel unheard and easily dismissed by the city council regarding our concerns.

We appreciate you continuing your oversight of the situation and questioning the need for a deer cull in Ann Arbor.

Respectfully,
Cathy Shafer

Hi Beth,

Thank you very much for this note. It really means a lot.

After four years, voting on thousands of issues, I have probably disagreed with each of my 119,999 neighbors at least once. I respect your advocacy on Lockwood.

About Henry, his group's actions have hurt our community for 16 years. The Southern Poverty Law Center even cites them as a hate group.

Thanks again and happy New Year! All the best to you and your family in 2020.

Best,
Zach

Hi Cathy,

Thank you very much for writing. It really means a lot. It only takes one person to stand up against this kind of speech, but that one person needs people like you -- people who take the time to write encouragement and support.
