Life of Contract: Life of Contract applies to claim features reported during the contract term and covers handling until conclusion without additional charge as long as the client continues to renew subsequent contracts. If any subsequent contract is cancelled or not renewed, the client may require CompOne to return all open claims, unless CompOne and the client agree that CompOne will continue the administration of open claims for an additional negotiated fee per open claim feature.

Workers' Compensation Definitions:

Indemnity Claim: Any claim resulting in lost time, litigation, serious injury, fractures, severe burns, cumulative trauma, chemical exposure, subrogation, or death.

Medical Only: Claims for minor injuries with no lost time, no litigation, no subrogation activity and that are expected to resolve in less than six months with medical treatment. Two (2) point contact with employer and medical provider. Medical only files automatically convert to Advance Medical only claim pricing at 6 months or when they reach $3,500 in paid medical expenses.

Record Only: The recording in CompOne's system of an incident that at some point in the future may have the potential to develop into a claim. Record Only claims will be identified as such upon presentation to CompOne and will have no adjuster/examiner involvement.
