Good afternoon April,

Thank you for reaching out regarding your application for the Transportation Commission. I can confirm that we have received your application. Please note that all applications are retained for two years. If you would still like to be considered for upcoming vacancies, there is no need to reapply at this time.

Best regards,

Christopher Cespedes, Management Assistant

Good morning,

Last spring I submitted an application for one of the transmission commission vacancies. I wondered if you had received my application and, if so, whether I should reapply or continue to wait for notification about the application.

thank you,
April
