Thank you, Kelly.

Christine, I unfortunately will have to formally resign from the commission: I had assumed due to a lack of contact that my name was no longer up for consideration and I made other professional obligations in the meantime that will prevent me from giving this position the attention it deserves.

I sincerely apologize for the confusion: I tried to reach out to my city council rep and a member of the HSAB board for info on my status but we weren't able to get a straight answer. I hope this doesn't preclude me from applying again in the future should the circumstances work out on all sides.

Thanks to you both for your help with this and apologies again,
