Does that mean that no one can see the wording of the request?? Surely someone has a copy.

Ed and Jack,

Does this mean that DDA does not have a copy of the request? It was issued on behalf of a city agency, so shouldn't it be available from that agency? Or is it just a matter of asking exactly the right question?

Peter,

The DDA denied a portion of my FOIA request for this specific document, as they did not have it in their possession. The FOIA records from the DDA are at

<http://a2docs.org/view/479>

I think I asked exactly the right question in writing.

thanks

Ed

Mr. Mayor,

I met you once at a party at the house of michael byers & susan hutton.

Im writing just to give you a personal angle on this absurdity about the god damned deer. My dentist, Dr. Peter Drescher, was a wonderful man and a great business owner in Ann Arbor. He was killed by a deer on his way home from his father's funeral. His long time partner was in the vehicle behind him. Stop for a second to think about that.

I know there isn't a chance in hell that you'd ever listen to these crazies but i thought id share this anecdote just to shore you up.

Respectfully, fuck the damned deer.
