

The National Issues Forums Institute and the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library cordially invite you to the upcoming deliberative forums

The National Issues Forum Series at the Presidential Libraries

Join us as we deliberate on important public policy issues. The three topics chosen center on public policy issues of particular importance in the upcoming presidential elections. By attending this forum, you will be joining others at twelve other presidential libraries across the nation.

Coping With the Cost of Health Care

Tuesday, September 16

5:30-7:30 PM

Gerald R. Ford Library

The cost of health insurance continues to rise, and forty-seven million Americans are still without insurance. What should we do to provide Americans with the care they need?

Light Refreshments will be served at 5:00 p.m.

What is the 21st Century Mis- sion for Our Public Schools?

Tuesday, September 30

5:30-7:30 PM

Gerald R. Ford Library

Public education for all children is a foundation stone of this nation's success. But changing times bring changing challenges. What central purpose do we want our schools to serve today?

R.S.V.P. by calling Kate
Murray at (734) 205-0567.
An informational packet will be sent upon confirmation of your R.S.V.P.

For more information, contact
Ann Hinsdale-Knisel at
(517) 264-9840 or
Ann.Knisel@lisd.us

The Energy Problem

Tuesday, October 21

5:30-7:30 PM

Gerald R. Ford Library

The demand for energy is constantly increasing, current energy sources are unstable, and the impact of consumption is becoming clear. How do we plan for a sustainable future?

GERALD R. FORD

LIBRARY &
MUSEUM

NATIONAL ISSUES FORUMS

Each forum will be held at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library
1000 Beal Avenue
Ann Arbor, MI
(734) 205-0555