Greg, Carl and City Clerk,

My name is Rosemary Nelini "Nel" Faulkner; please accept my resignation from the Ann Arbor Airport Advisory Committee, effective immediately,

Greg - thank you for your patience and effort to make this as simple as possible for me! I appreciate your professionalism, creativity and support.

Sincerely,
Nel

Nelini,

Sorry but never follow up with you Nelini, Based on the hand Boards and Commissions Handbook

You can resign from your board at any time for any reason. If you would like to resign from your position on your board or commission before your term expires, please send an email to the Boards and Commissions Coordinator and your designated Staff Liaison stating your board or commission name and the effective date of resignation. Your resignation will be included as a communication at the next City Council meeting

To complete the resignation process, I needed to ensure you inform the City Clerk and

Carl, the Airport Manager, of your resignation. I have included Carl and City Clerk so if you still wish to resign you can reply all with your wishes.

Greg Farris

Ann Arbor Airport Advisory Committee Chair

Good evening Greg,

I appreciate you taking the time to write this, and realize my absences are both unplanned and excessive.

Please accept my resignation, and apology for delay in airport business.

Thank you for reaching out. I was just wondering today how to resign.

Nelini

Nelini,

You missed the meeting on September 17th. As you are aware, the Ann Arbor Airport Advisory Committee holds six meetings annually. However, your attendance has been limited, with only two meetings in 2024 and just one of four meetings so far in 2025. Additionally, two meetings were canceled due to lack of quorum, which was affected by your absences.

I value your participation and hope you will be able to be an active member of the committee. Your contributions are important, and I would like to see you continue to be part of our efforts. That said, in accordance with the Board's policies and outlined in the Member Handbook (<https://www.a2gov.org/city-clerk/boards-and-commissions/boards-and-commissions-handbook/>), members may choose to resign at any time. If you believe you will be unable to commit to more regular attendance, I kindly ask you to consider resigning from your position.

Please let me know if you wish to remain a member or if you would like to discuss this further. I genuinely hope you will continue to be part of the committee.

Greg Farris
