

I strongly agree with the concerns expressed by Parker & Santacroce concerning the 215 Beakes zoning variance application.

The overriding issue is one of scale--appropriate building dimensions and setbacks for single family homes. Approval of this zoning variance application will set precedent for the eventual destruction of a historic near-downtown residential neighborhood and should not be allowed.

Ovide Pomerleau
637 N. 4th Avenue