INT INTRODUCTIONS

INT-1 13-0682*Ann Arbor Public Art Commission - Golden Paintbrush Awards for 2013

Bob Miller, Chair of the Public Arts Commission, presented the 14th Annual Golden Paintbrush Awards. The Public Arts Commission has presented the Golden Paintbrush Awards to honor individuals, businesses and organizations in the community that have contributed to outstanding public art in Ann Arbor. The awards are recognition of public art that adds interest to the cityscape, beautify the community, and create a unique sense of place. Nominations for the awards are open and received from the public and then voted on by the Public Art Commission.

Vic Strecher, Director of Public Health at U of M, and Jeri Rosenberg, figurative sculpture and theater set designer for the Burns Park Players, have been vital in starting and sustaining two annual public arts events; Festifools and Full Moon. They were awarded the Golden Paintbrush Award for their contribution to Ann Arbor's wonderful and unique Public Art Events (Festifools and Full Moon).

John Carver, owner of Carver-Gunn building located at 500-506 E. Liberty, has helped foster the arts with live music in Ann Arbor. He commissioned an original art piece by Detroit Artist Charles McGee for installation on the front of the building. This work is titled "Spirit of Ann Arbor," is 16 ft. tall and is a piece made from cut power-coated and brush aluminum. The artwork is a composition abstract of human forms that depict figures of dancing in motion with high energy. Mr. Carver was also awarded a Golden Paintbrush Award.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM COUNCIL*COUNCILMEMBER TAYLOR

Councilmember Taylor announced that the Park Advisory Commission would be considering a resolution at their meeting on June 18, 2013 to review the formal waiver of park rental fees for Liberty Plaza. The proposed resolution and fee waiver would apply to both the Pizza in the Park function and to all other humanitarian aid events at Liberty Plaza. It would not alleviate the need for a permit, however, the permit would be at no charge. If the resolution passes at PAC, it will be brought forward to Council for final consideration, he said.

COUNCILMEMBER LUMM

Councilmember Lumm reminded the public about the Re-Imagine Washtenaw Project and the ongoing survey for public input. The survey can be accessed at www.washtenawave.org. Comments can also be made by logging onto www.a2gov.org/a2opencityhall. The survey will be available until July 1.

Councilmember Lumm said that she and Councilmember Petersen have heard from people who are excited to see new traffic lights at Platt and Washtenaw. The lights should be operable within three weeks, beginning first in a flashing mode for one week.

Councilmember Lumm stated she will be bringing forward a resolution at the next meeting to create a Safety Services Advisory Task Force. Councilmember Lumm reminded Council that she first raised this issue during the budget process and she has spoken with Chief Seto about the process and the proposed language in the resolution.

COUNCILMEMBER ANGLIN

Councilmember Anglin said that there are a lot more people moving about in the summertime; walking, biking, skateboarding, etc. He said this is a time when Council could take a closer look at the streets in their wards and be aware of areas where safety improvements may be needed.

COUNCILMEMBER BRIERE

Councilmember Briere announced that she attended a six-hour training on "place making." Councilmember Briere said that this has been an interesting discussion topic recently, including how zoning and other economic conditions impact "place making." She noted that one of the interesting take-aways from the training was the need for Ann Arbor to think regionally, not in isolation from the surrounding area. She said the importance of collaboration, not competition, was stressed.

Mayor Hieftje replied that the "Economics of Place" published by the MML is a good book on this topic.

COUNCILMEMBER TEALL

Councilmember Teall recognized John Kotarski who worked on the DIA Insideout Program, for taking her and others around for a tour of the art pieces on display throughout town, going into the history of the different paintings, as well as providing local history. She said that it was a delightful tour and she thanked John for giving his time to the city.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE CITY ADMINISTRATOR

TRANSIT CONNECTOR STUDY

City Administrator Steve Powers announced that the Ann Arbor District Library would be holding a public forum at the downtown branch on the Transit Connector Study from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 18. Members of the public are invited to provide their opinions during the meeting. One of the goals of the workshop is to help people understand the interrelationships of the Connector Project and other related transportation studies including the Re-Imagine Washtenaw effort.

GRAND OPENING OF THE LESLIE PARK-TRAVER CREEK PROJECT

The City, along with the Washtenaw County Water Resources Commissioner, will be hosting the grand opening of the Leslie Park - Traver Creek Project on Saturday, June 22 at the Leslie Park Golf Course between 5:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. The project has been a city/county collaboration and was completed in order to correct severe stream bank erosion. The event on Saturday will also include golf-related activities. City Administrator Powers encouraged the public to attend the event.

JULY 4TH HOLIDAY

Administrator Powers announced that there would be no trash, recycling or compost collection on July 4, 2013. The regularly-scheduled Thursday and Friday collections would occur one day later. The normal Friday routes will be served on Saturday, July 6, he said.
