

Summary of 2024 Leadership Survey Results for Review

1. Qualities/Traits of a good Chair: Organized, Has time to dedicate to being prepared and complete tasks, Excellent Communication Skills, Connected with the arts and city staff/ability to bring people together, and Passionate about public art

Organized, time to dedicate to annual reports, good communication skills

Organized, informed, connects with the city staff and commissioners monthly, checks in with committees, is prepared for the meetings, passionate about public art, wants to be in the Chair role

Passion for public art, excellent communication skills, collaborative habits, ability to conduct meetings using Roberts Rules of Order ability to see the big picture as well as the little details know about the local artists and organizations that can sponsor art events

Time to prep for meetings and organization skills to keep track of documents/notes.

Passionate, organized, motivated.

2. Qualities/Traits of a good Vice Chair: Same as above + Ability to Support the chair.
3. Names of people to consider for Chair and Vice Chair: Mary Thiefels was named by all survey respondents for Chair and Sarah Fuller was nominated for Vice-Chair by several

Thank you so much to Fang and Jamal for your leadership! If either of you would like details on the feedback received during the survey I'm happy to share that with you directly.