Subject: Sinkhole on Ellsworth

Hi, I'm not sure who to contact, but on the north side of Ellsworth just east of Shadowood (<https://goo.gl/maps/xHr7FticRhkuwmxm9>) there is a large sinkhole growing in the bike lane. It started a week ago or so and has doubled in size, and is now several feet deep. It looks like the subsoil under the road is washing into a hole in the sewer system. Let me know if there's any other info you need.

Thanks,
James
