

City of Ann Arbor Eviction Prevention Requests & Approval Data – Administered by Ann Arbor Housing Commission $814,812

505 total requests (455 approved) between March 7, 2023 and September 16, 2024

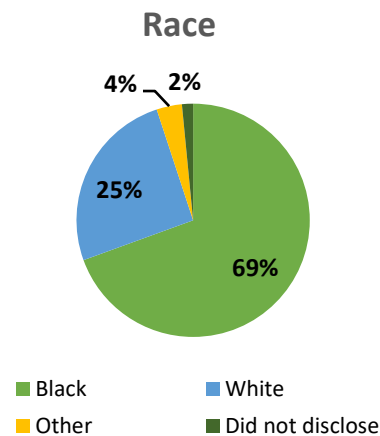

Approvals by ZIP
48103	185 (41%)
48108	169 (37%)
48105	52 (11%)
48104	48 (11%)
48107	1 (0-1%)

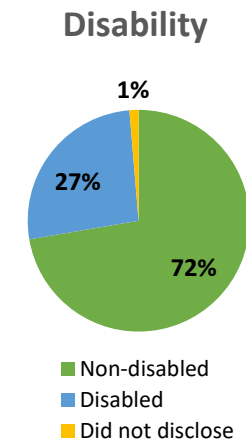

Approvals by Gender
Female	344 (76%)
Male	111 (24%)

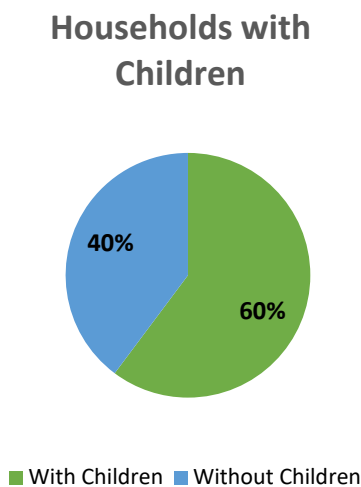

Approvals by Race
Black	316 (69%)
White	116 (25%)
Other	16 (4%)
Did not disclose	7 (2%)

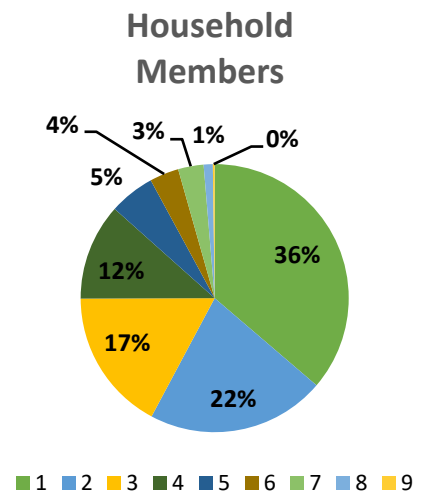

Approvals by Disability Status
Non-Disabled	329 (72%)
Disabled	120 (27%)
Did not disclose	6 (1%)

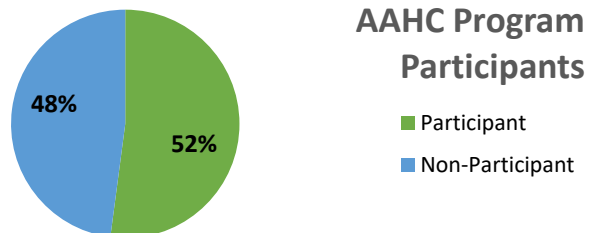

Households with Children
With Children	274 (60%)
Without Children	181 (40%)

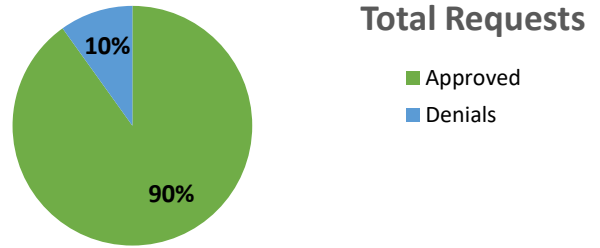

Number of Household Members
1	165 (36%)
2	98 (22%)
3	78 (17%)
4	53 (12%)
5	25 (5%)
6	16 (4%)
7	14 (3%)
8	5 (1%)
9	1 (0-1%)

Approvals for AAHC Program Participants
Participant	237 (52%)
Non-Participant	218 (48%)

Total Eviction Prevention Requests
Approved	455 (90%)
Denied	50 (10%)

Number of Household Members (Among Approvals)
Median	2
Mode	1
Minimum	1
Maximum	9

Annual Household Income (Among Approvals)
Median	$16,092
Minimum	$0
Maximum	$92,083

Rent Past Due (Among Approvals)
Median	$1,510
Minimum	$50
Maximum	$14,548
Total	$868,469

Payments (Among Approvals)
Median	$1,505
Minimum	$50
Maximum	$5,000
Total	$814,812

Average HPP Payment (among approvals): $1,791

*The most common reason for a funding request was a loss of wages or loss of employment.

*Applications were denied because they were not living in Ann Arbor or funds were already exhausted.

*$805,000 from City of Ann Arbor and $14,413 from Ann Arbor Housing Development Corporation

**Disbursements covered 94% of total past due rent owed by all applicants ($814,812/$868,469).

**96% of accepted applicants had all their past due rent covered by the City of Ann Arbor disbursement.