To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my support of April's Comprehensive Plan. Ann Arbor needs more housing and transportation, it truly benefits us all.

I am very proud of the path the city has taken in recent years. Even in just the 3 years I have lived here, I have seen Ann Arbor grow and flourish. Everyday it reminds me more of a little Midwest metropolis with its own glittering skyline. Downtown Ann Arbor is becoming a poster child for what every small-to-medium American sized city should look like, and I cannot thank all those involved in creating the modern Ann Arbor enough.

So, I ask you to ignore the NIMBYs and the naysayers—those fighting against the progress of our city and its people. Their veiled elitism benefits none but themselves, as they look to line their pockets at the cost of those seeking brighter futures for all.

Keep at it! Your bravery in this battle is an ever selfless pursuit, and you will one day enjoy the fruits of your labours just as the rest of the community will too.

Best,
Martín Stier
