ACTION ITEMS

OLD BUSINESS

Annual Renewals

The committee discussed invoicing outstanding obligations to the City so that the City Treasurer could track this information for future reviews. Councilmember Anglin moved, seconded by Councilmember Kailasapathy, that the $50 annual renewal fee be formally invoiced by the City's Finance Department. On a voice vote, the motion carried.

The committee reviewed the remaining annual renewal applications that staff presented with objections:

*The Arena - outstanding personal property taxes and judgment for past-due invoices
Banfield Bar and Grill - outstanding personal property taxes and failure to permit the inspection of premises by City Building Official*

Ann Arbor Comedy Showcase - failure to permit the inspection of premises by City Building Official

Aut Bar - failure to permit the inspection of premises by City Building Official

Bagger Dave's - failure to permit the inspection of premises by City Building Official

Cafe Zola - failure to permit the inspection of premises by City Building Official

Assistant City Attorney Mary Fales was instructed to prepare a resolution to Council on Tuesday, February 19, setting a liquor committee hearing for March 6, 2013, based on the committee's discussion. It was decided that staff could amend the resolution prior to February 19 if any applicants satisfied the staff objections.

Councilmember Kailasapathy moved, seconded by Councilmember Anglin, that the Council Liquor License Committee recommend a hearing date be set by City Council for Wednesday, March 6, 2013 for hearing the above matters. All other liquor license applications were approved for annual renewal. On a voice vote, the motion carried.
