6. PUBLIC COMMENT (Persons may speak for three minutes about an item that is NOT listed as a public hearing on this agenda. Please state your name and address for the record.)

Will Leaf, 528 N State, suggested periphery parcels should be placed in transition zone.

Gaurav Kulkarni, 139 Ashley Mews Drive, spoke to the Council Resolution.

Kathy Grizwold, commented on site distance and visibility for traffic, including lighting in crosswalks and intersections.

Peter Houk, 4th Ward, stated more cars coming in means more risk for pedestrians; need policies to promote density.

Jeff Crockett, 506 W Kingsley, Old Fourth Ward as transition zone and Historic Districts.

Chuck Ream, 1911 Packard Street, encouraged residents to run for City Council in order to influence the Comprehensive Plan, expressed concerns about potential effects on the environment and neighborhood character.

Tracy Swinburn, resident, expressed that the current plan should include more analysis.

Trisha Hackney, 566 Kellogg Apt B, advocated for housing projects that seamlessly integrate their housing units into the community, noted that she supports less density in the proposed transition zones.

Richard Dokus, 1243 Marlborough Drive, opposed his neighborhood being in one of the proposed transition zones, raised concerns about climate conscious residents.

Greg Monroe, 1261 Bending Road, encouraged the planning commission to ensure that the recent City Council resolutions are reflected in the next draft of the Comprehensive Plan with robust language.

Donna Babcock, 1st Ward, advocated for phasing out short term rentals and recommended later converting them into market housing, emphasized the risk the Comprehensive Plan draft poses to solar panel owners in transition zones.

Kirk Westphal, 3505 Charter Place, expressed support for the proposed transition zones, suggested expanding HUB zones, and raised concerns about putting formal divisions within the proposed transition zones.

Mark Scerbo, 2017 Fair Street, expressed his support for proposed HUB and transition zones, supports rolling R3 and R4 lots to proposed transition zones.

Shannon Laauo, 2870 Oakdale Drive, encourages the commission to roll R3 and R4 parcels into proposed transition zones.

Ross Smith, 1607 Charleston Ave, supports expanding proposed HUB zones and ensuring we do not add too much constraint on developers.

Erma Meyer, 2809 Brockman Boulevard, advocated for an environmental assessment to be included in the Comprehensive Plan.

Ralph Mckee, 5th Ward, suggested we should gain consensus from individual neighborhoods.

Kathy Chow, resident, expressed her excitement for the Comprehensive Plan and thanked us for holding public outreach sessions at the public library early in the planning process.

Julie Ritter, 920 Catherine, expressed her opposition to the Comprehensive Plan.

Kris Crocket, 506 East Kinglsey, noted that the Comprehensive Plan does not include information about ecology.

Tom Stulberg, 1202 Traver Road, expressed opposition to the City Council resolution that was passed recently regarding the Comprehensive Plan.

Sarah Bakshume, 139 Ashley Muse Drive, voiced her support for the Comprehensive Plan.

Andrew Robins, 2355 Lancashire Drive, noted that the only way to minimize carbon emissions due to workers commuting from outside of Ann Arbor is to provide housing within the city.

Ken Garber, 28 Haverhill Court, questioned how the public comment process will be codified for by right site plans regarding the recent Bylaws amendment that was passed in City Council.

Susan Kauffman, 630 5th Street, advocated for stronger language in the Comprehensive Plan that protects Historic Districts and shows the City's commitment to historic preservation.

Brian Chambers, 215 Ember Way, expressed his support for the City Council resolution that recently passed, suggesting considering additional strategies.

Adam Jaskeviewicz, 4th Ward, urged the commission to roll R3 and R4 zoning designations into the proposed transition zones.

Brad Pritts 3030 Lexington, advocated for more meaningful public engagement.

Nancy Luff, 1512 Mont Clair Place, shared concerns regarding solar systems and affordable retail space for local businesses in proposed HUB and Transition districts.

Kathy Boris, 1726 Charlton, advocated for Ann Arbor's natural features.

Brandon Dimcheff, Larry Town resident, supports keeping the Comprehensive Plan simple.

Alex Lowe, 2532 Pittsfield Village, suggested that Pittsfield Village and other R3 and R4 zoning districts be combined with proposed transition districts.

[For a complete record of the discussion, please see available video format].

Seeing no additional speakers Secretary Hammerschmidt closed the Public Comment.

Commission public meetings are held the first and third Tuesday of each month. Both of these meetings provide opportunities for the public to address the Commission. All persons are encouraged to participate in public meetings. Persons requiring translation or sign language services or other reasonable accommodations may contact the City Clerk's office at 734.794.6140; via e-mail to: cityclerk@a2gov.org; or by written request addressed and mailed to: City Clerk's Office, 301 E. Huron St., Ann Arbor, MI 48104. Requests need to be received at least two (2) business days in advance of the meeting.

Planning Commission meeting agendas and packets are available from the Legislative Information Center on the City Clerk's page of the City's website (<http://a2gov.legistar.com/Calendar.aspx>). Agendas and packets are also sent to subscribers of the City's email notification service, GovDelivery. You can subscribe to this free service by accessing the City's website and clicking on the 'Subscribe to Updates' envelope on the home page.

(If an agenda item is postponed, it will most likely be rescheduled to a future date. If you would like to be notified when a postponed agenda item will appear on a future agenda please contact Planning staff. You may also call Planning and Development Services at 734-794-6265 during office hours to obtain additional information about the review schedule or visit the Planning page on the City's website (www.a2gov.org)

(Public Hearings: Individuals may speak for three minutes. Please state your name and address for the record.) Comments about a proposed project are most constructive when they relate to: (1) City Code requirements and land use regulations, (2) consistency with the City Master Plan, or (3) additional information about the area around the petitioner's property and the extent to which a proposed project may positively or negatively affect the area.)

These meetings are typically broadcast on Ann Arbor Community Television Network Comcast 16 / AT&T 99 live at 7:00 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays of the month and replayed the following Saturdays at 8:00 PM. Recent meetings can also be streamed online from the CTN Video On Demand page of the City's website <https://a2gov.org/watchctn> . The complete record of this meeting is available in video format at <https://a2gov.org/watchctn>, or is available for a nominal fee by contacting CTN at (734) 794-6150

City Planning Commission regular meetings have transitioned to a hybrid meeting model. The City of Ann Arbor highly encourages the public to participate in public meetings, either in-person or remotely.
