Question applies to Commission on Disability Issues

If applying to the Commission on Disability Issues, the Commission requires that 9 of the 13 members have a disclosed disability, as defined by the federal ADA. Are you willing to disclose a disability to serve on this Commission?

---

Question applies to multiple boards

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

---

As a caregiver for my disabled mother, who has both physical- and vision-related disabilities, I see the world through a different lens than many of my peers. I feel that between my experiences as a caregiver, and my experiences as a researcher who is engaged as a co-investigator on several research projects through the M-Disability Center at the University of Michigan, I bring to the table a different, yet valuable perspective on disability. I hope to have the opportunity to put these experiences and expertise to good use to help make our community more accessible for all people who wish to enjoy our city.

Demographics

We are proud of our commitment to equal opportunity. We do not discriminate on the basis of a person's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, gender, or age, in any aspect of our appointment process. Application demographic statistics let the City of Ann Arbor know what shortcomings might exist in efforts to engage the community and recruit residents to participate in government.

Acknowledgement

Please Agree with the Following Statement

Most city boards and commissions meet virtually. I understand that if selected for appointment for a board that meets in-person, I must submit proof of full vaccination against COVID-19 unless granted an exemption by the City.
