A WASHTENAW COUNTY COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH PRESENTATION

At the last meeting, discussion skirted around how police and mental health crisis intervention do and don't work in Ann Arbor. Staff felt it was a good opportunity to bring in Community Mental Health staff involved in the Crisis Intervention Team to talk about their work, and present a few examples of how it plays out in the field.

B Y-LOT UPDATE ON NEXT STEPS INCLUDING PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

HHSAB asked for an update on the process including when public engagement would be included, and a general timeline for next steps.

Currently, staff is working on the feasibility of three different development options for the Y-Lot. The feasibility analysis will be presented at an August meeting of the City Council. At that time there will also be a request for bids related to public engagement. The engagement would include getting public feedback based the feasibility options. The engagement would likely occur in the fall. In the fall/winter recommendations would be brought to City Council for action.

C AFFORDABLE HOUSING WORKING SESSION - NEXT STEPS

Also packed into an August City Council meeting will be a resolution for the City Council to direct staff to do the review and feasibility analysis of all public land in the city of affordable housing.

D AFFORDABLE HOUSING DRAFT "WATCH LIST" COUNTY-WIDE

One key goal of the 2017 Assessment of Fair Housing was the review of all committed affordable units in Washtenaw County, including development of a list of "at-risk" properties that could convert to market rate, and a strategy to try and maintain affordability. Staff will be presenting an update as to where we are in that process.
