I'm so glad we're eliminating parking minimums. It's a long overdue step.

We need to do much more. A2Zero, for example, calls for cutting our vehicle miles traveled in half by 2030, and we need to make much bigger changes, much more quickly, to get there.

Please postpone consideration of this ordinance until rental providers have had more chance to provide input to make it better. I own a rental and already have strong incentives to allow good tenants to renew. We care about our renters and would never choose to not renew without a significant reason. I don't believe right to renew legislation is needed.
