NEW BUSINESS

1 Legislative update - late session and lame-duck updates

Deputy Administrator Fournier provided an update on recent legislative actions. He noted that the city is pleased with recent election changes that allow earlier processing of absentee ballots. Another change will require existing ballot boxes to be modified to have only one deposit slot. Other bills still working their way through the legislative process that are of interest include a change of Michigan primary election date, short-term rental regulation, hard-cap limits for municipal employee benefits, and revenue sharing. He is working closely with Dykema Gossett to forward the interests of the city at every opportunity.

- 2 Safe Streets for All (SS4A) grant application update

Deputy Fournier reported that the Safe Streets for All grant application has been submitted for the two-stage review process. He is optimistic about the chances for this shovel-ready project. If not selected, feedback from the process will help strengthen the application next year.

- 3 Landfill solar funding search

Deputy Administrator Fournier explained that the fluctuation in cost of solar panels has caused a dramatic increase in the cost of the Landfill Solar Project. Alternative sources of funding are being sought to fill the gap.

- 4 Considering lobbyist and elected officials before consultants (Deleted from agenda)

Struck from agenda.

- 5 Resolution regarding accountability of vendors supporting voter suppression (Deleted from agenda)

Struck from agenda.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- 1 Wixom Wastewater NPDES permitting

Mr. Fournier indicated that Ann Arbor's second round of requests to EGLE for changes to the Wixom Wastewater NPDES permit have been rejected by the agency. There will be continued conversation around the issue and the changes that were already agreed to represent considerable improvements. There has been no information provided about safety procedures and failures at Tribar. He will continue to provide updates to the committee.
