Subject: Your retirement recognition tonight :-)

Jim, not seeing you at our council mtg. Now concerned that you may not have know that we are recognizing you tonight. We can do this later in the meeting if you're around. Sorry about the confusion! My best, Jane

Subject: condos at Main and Berkley

Hello:

I was unable to make the city council meeting tonight but wanted to voice my opinion as a concerned resident.

I fear that the luxury game-day condominiums going up on Stadium are the beginning of a disconcerting trend—condos targeted towards entertaining / partying on football game days. The Game Day Condos proposed for Berkley Avenue continue this trend. These structures maximize their footprint by being taller than their neighbors, and do not reflect the architectural styles of the surrounding houses.

I am okay with the Stadium condos, since Stadium doesn't have much of a neighborhood feel and consists mostly of unattractive rentals on that block. But this latest development, while taking advantage of the Main St. address and office zoning, faces our (Berkley Ave) street and is a more integral part of the neighborhood. It will tower over the other houses and will stand out like a sore thumb, architecturally. It seems targeted toward people who want to entertain on game days and may not care much for the neighborhood feel. I fear they will not be involved residents who care about the neighborhood. I doubt people will actually have their permanent residences there, but just use them as a space to come in and entertain and then leave.

We have many families in our close-knit neighborhood and do not want to lose that...it's what it makes it special. This condo development does not belong here.

Thanks for your consideration,

Julie Roberts
