Hello, my friend:

This is William Hampton. Here's a copy of my words from this evening. Hopefully, by the time you read them, success will have been attained. Please reach out if you ever need to talk to me for any reason.

Peace,
wvh

Every day has meaning in the definition of a life.

JUNETEENTH
05/17/21

Hello, everybody.

My name is William V. Hampton and I am here representing your Ann Arbor Branch of the NAACP.

Thank you so much for your consideration for the approval of DC-6.

Your approval would create Juneteenth as a City of Ann Arbor holiday.

I still remember the difficulty in getting MLK approved as a National holiday, here in our United States of America.

The MLK holiday designation did not seem to gain national real traction until after Stevie Wonder's Happy Birthday song, in honor of MLK.

Right now, MLK Day remains as the only holiday in our country specifically set aside in honor of the accomplishments of African Americans.

Juneteenth represents the day of emancipation for enslaved African Americans after 246 years of involuntary servitude.

In my judgement, total freedom remains a work in progress, even today.

In fact, on this very day, May 17th, 67 years ago, our United States Supreme Court rendered its decision in the Brown v Board of Education, Topeka, Kansas case of 1954.

That decision overturned the so-called separate but equal mandate of more than a half century earlier and made public schools open to all of us.

The 1954 Brown decision was a segway to the Civil Rights Movement and alledgedly for more equal rights for people who look like me in the areas of employment, housing, public accommodations, and economic sustainability.

This ongoing battle for equality continues.

It has now been almost 156 years since the Juneteenth announcement.

Translation, this means it will take until the year 2111 or 90 years from right now for us to be out of slavery for as long as we were in this unfortunate situation.

Hopefully, that is something for all of us to think about. Right?

In closing, let me simply say, thank you to each City Council person, past and present, who are or who have been members of your NAACP.

Please remember that the NAACP's doors remain open to everybody because we strongly believe that collaboration is better than competition for the sake of right.

We are all in this world together and I trust the vote for DC-6 is unanimous.

I would like a running total reported with every appointment. For example, we have 255 community members serving on boards and commissions. Of that total, 231 are category 1, three are category 2, four are category 3, 13 are category 4 and four are undefined/other. Categories would match categories we use for our equity goals.

Hi Elizabeth,

I'm writing to request your support for Amendment 13. Ann Arbor does not need any more allocations to the police department. Ann Arbor does not need community policing. Over 120 sworn officers is too much. Instead of funding more policing in Ann Arbor, please get the AAPD to provide data to <https://policescorecard.org>

Thanks,
Donnell

The land the City of Ann Arbor occupies is the ancestral, traditional, and contemporary lands of the Anishinaabeg – (including Odawa, Ojibwe and Boodewadomi) and Wyandot peoples. We further acknowledge that our City stands, like almost all property in the United States, on lands obtained, generally in unconscionable ways, from indigenous peoples. The taking of this land was formalized by the Treaty of Detroit in 1807. Knowing where we live, work, study, and recreate does not change the past, but a thorough understanding of the ongoing consequences of this past can empower us in our work to create a future that supports human flourishing and justice for all individuals.

Colleagues,

Since we are likely to have a long meeting tomorrow, I wanted to provide you all with a proposed amendment to the Legislative Policy Agenda in advance for your consideration after additional conversation I had with some local LGBTQ+ advocates. Please do not reply all in potential violation of OMA.

DC-5 21-0842 Resolution to Adopt FY22 City Council Legislative Policy Agenda

On page two, under the "In the interest of enabling a safe, welcoming, and inclusive community, the Council directs the following:" section, I propose adding the following:

"18. Support and advocate for changes to Michigan Department of Corrections policy and state law to require the housing of transgender and gender non-confirming individuals in accordance with their gender identity, to address transgender inmates based on the pronouns of their choice, and to require officers to search inmates based on the search policy of their gender identity."

Thanks,
