OLD BUSINESSREPORT FROM STAFF

Stadium Bridges - We now have an additional damaged panel on the Arbor Winds piece. Staff has located a vendor in Germany to reproduce these panels - due to size and uniqueness of the panels it has been difficult to find a local manufacturer in the states. Panels to be shipped to the City in mid December. This asset has been damaged twice and the commission request that staff reachout to the University of Michigan re their willingness to partner with the city to help maintain public art within the city, perhaps installation/use of cameras. Continued replacement of these glass panels will be costly, city needs to begin to look at replacement alternatives is needed in the future.

Jewett Memorial - The memorial will be relocated to its permanent location on the eastside of the Farmers Market as part of the DDA Fifth Ave project.

Public Art Inventory - Request to HR to hire part-time staff to support the efforts in identifying the all the public art assets within the city. Other groups within the city are currently working on projects like this; commission should partner with them in the future.
